Chapter3*Catalysts of Migration and Dislocation*Movement and Migration

For each region find at least one real-life example of migration and one-real-life example of dislocation, either current or historic (after WWII). Briefly discuss each example including the following information: source of migrants, destination of migrants, time frame, numbers involved, and prime motivators. If you cannot find an example in the reading, find one through your own research.

Region	Migration Flow (or trend)	Dislocation (Refugees)
Europe
North America
South America
South, East or SE Asia
N. Africa or SW Asia
Sub-Saharan Africa

Catalysts of Migration: Types of Push and Pull Factors - give ONE example for each, and specify if it is a “push” or “pull” factor:

Legal Status
Economic Conditions
Power Relationships
Political Circumstances
Armed Conflict & Civil War
Environmental Conditions
Culture and Traditions
Technological Advances
